

34 Student Teams Enter CSBS 2023 Community Bank Case Study Competition

May 18, 2023

Teams will examine how banks are planning for the future

Washington, D.C. – Thirty-four student teams from 28 colleges and universities across the nation have entered the 2023 CSBS Community Bank Case Study Competition. Each team has partnered with a local community bank to learn how it is recruiting and retaining talent, approaching succession planning and using technology to advance its operations.

This is the ninth year of the competition, which is open to undergraduate students in all fields of study as an opportunity to gain valuable first-hand knowledge of the banking industry. The teams will undergo three rounds of judging. A list of those who advance to the second round will be announced on May 31. The top three teams will be announced at the CSBS State Federal Supervisory Forum in Philadelphia on July 12.

In addition to being invited to present at the annual Community Banking Research Conference, each student member and faculty advisor of the first-place winning team will receive a $1,000 scholarship. Their work will be published in the annual CSBS Journal of Community Bank Case Studies. Teams that place second and third will also receive scholarships and have their works published in the journal.
