

States of the Economy - August 2021

"States of the Economy" is a monthly look at the economic picture across the country. This month, Matt Longacre and CSBS Senior Economist Tom Siems discuss the latest jobs numbers, concerns about inflation, how COVID is impacting consumer confidence, and what regulators should be watching out for over the coming months.

Podcast Length
12:44