

Strong Partnerships Create Strong Financial Regulation

Sep 18

Strong relationships between state and federal regulators are crucial to effective financial regulation. These relationships form the basis for coordination and collaboration across a range of supervisory processes and efforts.

The State Liaison Committee (SLC) brings an important state view to the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council. Last week, SLC members gathered in Washington, D.C. for a briefing hosted at the CSBS offices and FFIEC's third quarter meeting.

Four people standing next to each other

Pictured: Kevin Allard (Ohio), Melanie Hall (Montana), SLC Chair Charles Cooper (Texas) and Susannah Marshall (Arkansas). Not pictured: Yolanda Ford (New York).

Learn more about the FFIEC SLC.

Top Category

Opinions & Insights

202.296.2840

newsroom@csbs.org

1129 20th Street, N.W., 9th Floor, Washington, DC 20036