

CSBS Supports Efforts to Reform Small Business Data Collection Demands

Feb 5, 2025

Statement by CSBS President and CEO Brandon Milhorn on recently introduced legislation to reform or repeal the Consumer Finance Protection Bureau's small business loan data collection requirements established under Section 1071 of the Dodd-Frank Act.

"The CFPB final rule implementing section 1071 missed the mark. By going well beyond the data elements required by the law, the rule imposed unnecessary burdens on banks and their small business customers. Small businesses need access to credit to form and grow, and we welcome congressional action to restore appropriate balance to this reporting requirement."
