

CSBS Announces 2025 Community Bank Case Study Competition Teams

May 15, 2025

35 teams will examine interest rates and inflation

Washington, D.C. – Thirty-five student teams from 27 colleges and universities have entered to compete in the 2025 CSBS Community Bank Case Study Competition. Each team has partnered with a local community bank to explore the impact of interest rates and inflation on the business of banking, with a focus on planning for the future through branch strategy, technology, and managing regulatory burden.

This is the eleventh year of the competition, which is open to undergraduate students nationwide in all fields of study as an opportunity to gain valuable first-hand knowledge of the banking industry. The teams will undergo three rounds of judging. CSBS will announce teams that advance to the second round on June 3 and the top three teams on July 14.

In addition to being invited to present at the annual Community Banking Research Conference each student member and faculty advisor of the first-place winning team will receive a $1,000 scholarship. Their work will be published in the annual Journal of Community Bank Studies. Teams that place second and third will also receive scholarships and have their works published in the journal.
