NOMINEE IDENTIFICATION _____

Essay Assignment: In approximately 500 words, discuss the following

“In recent years “community banks” have been defined in many ways with several different standards. How would you define a community bank and how would you differentiate them in regulation and supervision compared to non-community banks? Include two examples of regulatory or supervisory issues that would need to be addressed in your definition and how you would address them?”

Your response should be a reflection of your own views and ideas but must include quotes from interviews with at least one superior or co-worker, and at least one banker.
