

---

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

---

Financial Institutions Examiner – Depository Division

The Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) is seeking qualified candidates to serve as financial institution field examiners. Interested parties should contact Troy Pogue at tpogue@dfi.in.gov or by telephone at (317) 233-6342.

Job Title: Financial Institutions Examiner – Depository Division

Salary: Salary based on financial institution examination experience. Entry level base salary is $41,314 per year.

About this Job

The Indiana Department of Financial Institutions assesses the financial performance, risk profile, and risk mitigation practices of banks and credit unions chartered in the State of Indiana. The DFI promotes community banking and credit union activities in an effort to enhance the growth and prosperity of local communities and citizens of the State. Additionally, the DFI assists in ensuring financial institutions are treating consumers consistent with applicable State and federal regulations.

Financial Institution Examiners are charged with analyzing financial performance, identifying pertinent risks, and assessing risk mitigation practices across the purview of State-chartered banks, credit unions, trust companies, and consumer lenders. The DFI is looking for individuals with strong skills in the areas of financial analysis, credit risk assessment, problem solving, and financial institution operations.

Examiners will work in a dynamic and high performing environment, with a well identified career path and significant opportunities to progress throughout the organization. New examiners work in a mentor training relationship and are immediately immersed in interaction with senior level DFI and financial institution management. Examiners receive internal training and also formal schooling provided by the federal regulatory agencies and trade organizations.

About Indiana Department of Financial Institutions:

The DFI is an Indiana state government agency charged with regulating and overseeing the activities of state-chartered banks, credit unions, trust companies, and non-depository entities. The Department works directly with the institutions it regulates, and through examination and supervisory activities, endeavors to assure the public of adequate and proper services from such institutions. It is the DFI's mission to assure the protection of the interests of depositors, borrowers, shareholders, and consumers. The Department fosters growth in urban and rural communities across the State by promoting sound banking and consumer protection activities. The DFI is a dedicated-fund agency whose revenue is derived solely from supervision, examination, and license fees that are assessed to those institutions under its regulation. The DFI receives no tax money from constituents of the State.